This includes door prizes, signs, and mentions in exhibitors literature of other businesses that do not have a proper contract with WeddingsOfGeorgia.com

3. A deposit can be made to hold an Exhibitor's space for the show. Payment in full is required by one month prior to the show date. In the event the exhibitor fails to complete payment, violates the contract, or withdraws from the event, Show Management shall retain all fees. All uncollectible checks will be subject to a $30 service charge. Past due balances will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law and the exhibitor shall be responsible for any fees associated with collection. Any exhibitor must pay with cash, money order, cashiers check or credit cards.

4. For the convenience of the Exhibitor, WeddingsOfGeorgia.com will accept submission of this agreement by facsimile. The parties agree that, if a signed copy of this agreement is transmitted by facsimile, the facsimile copy shall be deemed to be an original document and fully enforced there as.

5. WeddingsOfGeorgia.com reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any company to exhibit in the show and further reserves the right to reject or cancel any application and/or limit the number of exhibitors in any category. Exhibitor understands and agrees that Show Management has the right to make exhibit space available to business engaged in competitive endeavors. Show Management reserves the right to give exclusivity to any one category.

6. Exhibitors may enter show facility at the designated time of the show. Exhibitors must use authorized loading areas and remove vehicles from loading area immediately after unloading. Exhibits may not be dismantled or removed before show has closed.

Set-up of exhibit must be completed no later than set-up end time. Should exhibitor fail to occupy its space during the scheduled set-up period, Show Management shall have the right to take possession of said space without liability for a refund of exhibitor fees.

Absolutely no children under the age of 16 may be on the show floor or loading areas during set-up.

7. WeddingsOfGeorgia.com reserves the right to alter the show floor plan and/or reassign location of Exhibitor space. Exhibitor agrees that Show Management shall not be liable to exhibitor for any other loss or damage suffered by exhibitors by reason of such location.

8. Due to liability issues, a $100 fine will be levied upon any business who tears down their booth before the END OF THE SHOW AND ALL BRIDES HAVE LEFT THE BUILDING. In addition, the bridal mailing list will be forfeited. The second time a vendor does not comply with this rule, they will be denied further participation with WeddingsOfGeorgia. THIS IS STRICTLY ENFORCED.

9. Exhibitors are responsible for set up and breakdown of their own display; furnishing their own equipment, supplies and materials to be used or display; staffing booth personnel for all hours of show; all equipment, supplies and materials lost, stolen or damaged while displayed or stored in or about the facility; any damage to the facility property, including but not limited to floors, walls, ceiling, doors, windows, glass, plants, and equipment. Exhibitors are prohibited from attaching anything to walls, columns, windows or fixtures of show facility. Displays may not exceed the boundaries of exhibit space.

10. Each booth is provided with one 8' table with black tablecloth, 2 chairs, trashcan, and booth signage. Exhibitors who require additional tables or linens need to contract and pay for the additional items with WeddingsOfGeorgia.com prior to the show. Items may not be available the day of the show.

All booths will have backdrops to the floor to separate them from side to side. Signs and decorations may be attached to the backdrop poles but nothing can be attached to facilities walls. WeddingsOfGeorgia.com cannot guarantee color of drapes. Many exhibitors who feel that background color is important for their display, usually pin a piece of fabric on top of the drape. This also helps them stand out from other booths. No tape may be used on any poles.

11. All displays erected for the show must be free standing and may not exceed the boundaries of exhibit space. Exhibitors must leave the space occupied by them in the same condition as at the time when first occupied. Show Management reserves the right to restrict displays, video, or audio which, because of noise or method of operation, interfere with other exhibitors, and to prohibit or remove such displays and/or personnel which in the opinion of Show Management continues interference with others and must be discontinued.

Exhibitor is charged with having knowledge of and compliance with all laws, ordinances, and regulations pertaining to licensing, sales tax, health, fire prevention, public safety, copyright, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Exhibit materials, decorations, and display items must be fire safe. If an exhibit does not comply with these regulations, or otherwise presents a hazard or danger, WeddingsOfGeorgia.com may remove the exhibit with no liability for refund of exhibit fees.

12. Show Management reserves the right to restrict displays which interfere with other exhibitors, and to prohibit or remove such displays and/or personnel which in the opinion of the show management become objectionable and/or detract from the character of the show.

13. Reasonable precautions will be taken by show management to protect persons and property during the show. However, neither show management, the show facility, nor its representatives, shall be responsible for the personal safety of the exhibitors or its representatives from injury, nor the safety of the property of the exhibitor from theft or damage by fire, accident, vandalism, or other causes. The exhibitor agrees to assume all liability, and indemnify and hold harmless show management, show facility, and representatives of the same, for damage or injury which might ensue by reason of its exhibit, including damage to the show facility and personal injury to the exhibitor, its representatives, agents, patrons, and customers.

14. Exhibitors are required to provide a door prize of at least a $50 value to be given away from the main stage throughout the show. If an exhibitors give away prizes from their booth in addition to the main stage giveaways, the exhibitor agrees not to sell, lend or otherwise transfer the list, or names collected at the show, to any business or individual for any reason. Exhibitor agrees to be held liable for any unauthorized use of the list and names collected at the show according to the Exhibitor Contract with WeddingsOfGeorgia.com

15. ALL EXHIBITORS who have any form of music in their booth, including background music in a vide, must be non-registered, public domain, or original music with the author's permission. Anyone who violates this rule is responsible for any and all claims inflicted on WeddingsOfGeorgia.com.

16. WeddingsOfGeorgia.com reserves the right to turn off sound which is too loud to conduct business. Sound must stay within the booth area.

17. Exhibitors and models will be provided wrist bands prior to the show starting. A list of employees that will be arriving late can be left at the ticket booth prior to 12 pm to avoid being charged to get into the show. Exhibitors personnel must wear an official exhibitor badge throughout the show which will be provided the day of set-up. Any exhibitor personnel who arrive after the show opens to the public must display their wrist band, have their name on a list provided by the Exhibitor, or provide a ticket to be admitted.

18. There is a additional charge for all shows for the use of electricity that must be paid prior to electricity being installed.

19. All exhibitors must park in the parking facilities designated for the show. No exhibitor may park in the loading areas during the show.

20. Show Management reserves the right to relocate exhibitor (with exhibitor's permission) to exhibit space other than one specified and such change in space relocation shall not relieve exhibitor of its obligation hereunder.

21. A complete list of attending brides and grooms will be made available to each exhibitor during the week following the show. The list will be coded to enable Show Management to monitor its use. The exhibitor agrees not to sell, lend, or otherwise transfer the list to any other business or individual for any reason. The exhibitor agrees to be held liable for any unauthorized use of the list and that damages to Show Management resulting from each unauthorized use will be set at a dollar amount equal to the price of the exhibitor's space in the show. Exhibitor is responsible for contacting show management if list is not received.

22. Exhibitor receives a 6 month listing on WeddingsOfGeorgia.com from the show management company. However, if the exhibitor fails to meet the requirements stated in this agreement, Exhibitor agrees that they will be removed from WeddingsOfGeorgia.com until their agreement is in good standing with show management without refund.

23. Shall litigation be necessary for Show Management to enforce any condition of this agreement, Show Management, in addition to any damages or relief awarded, shall be entitled to receive interest at the rate of one and one-half percent per month from the date of breach, court costs, and attorney's fees of one-third of the total exhibitor fee. The exhibitor agrees that any such litigation shall take place in Fayette County Court, Fayette County, Georgia.

24. The agreement between Show Management and show facility shall supersede the agreement between Show Management and the exhibitor. All promotion information provided by show management to exhibitors is accurate as of its publication; however the details of the show are subject to change. Show management reserves the right to impose additional reasonable guidelines as necessary.

25. An Exhibitor requiring assistance under the Americans with Disabilities Act must notify Show Management in writing no later than 30 days prior to the show.

26. Exhibitor agrees that Show Management may list the Exhibitor in show promotional materials and use photography and/or video taken at the show for publicity purposes without compensation to Exhibitor.

27. In the event of adverse weather conditions, fire, casualty, disaster, labor disputes, Y2K, acts of God or any other emergency situations beyond the control of WeddingsOfGeorgia.com, WeddingsOfGeorgia.com will at its discretion, reschedule and/or procure alternate space for the show or cancel. Exhibitor agrees that the terms and conditions set forth in this agreement shall apply to any re-scheduling and/or relocation of show.

In the event an emergency condition beyond the control of WeddingsOfGeorgia.com necessitates cancellation of show, the obligations of the parties under this agreement shall be automatically terminated and all payments made under agreement, less a prorated share of the expenses of the show incurred by Show Management in connection with the show, and determined by Show Management shall be refunded to Exhibitor only upon collection of show managements insurance as and for complete settlement and discharge of Exhibitor's claims and demands. The prorated refund is paid only upon collection from Show Management's insurance. Show Management reserves the right to determine the prorated rate. The prorated refund shall be accepted by Exhibitor as complete settlement and discharge of Exhibitor's claims and demands.

28. Exhibitor shall not be permitted to bring any equipment or display any materials into the Show without prior full payment. If payments are not made in accordance with due dates specified in this agreement, WeddingsOfGeorgia.com may terminate this agreement and re-assign space to another exhibitor. All payments are non-refundable and non-transferable and space reservations may not be cancelled. Failure to attend the show still holds the exhibitor liable for full payment of booth space.

In the event of a breach of this agreement by the Exhibitor,
